Consultant fee

Actual costs of service
Consulting fees are charged when in the judgment of the Planning Director, Planning Commission, or County Counsel, expertise or resources are required outside the scope of the County’s ability to evaluate an application accurately or timely and additional assistance is needed. In some cases, consultation is required by County ordinance. Examples include but are not limited to evaluation of a proposed energy-related facility and related impacts, evaluation of environmental impact of certain industries, evaluation of the impact of certain applications on airport operations or a traffic-impact study.

Road Department

County-Accepted and Maintained Roads

Traffic review related to County-accepted and maintained roads is typically performed by the Oregon Dept. of Transportation. If ODOT-review is not available, the below fees will be applied. If plan review and site observation cannot be performed by County or ODOT staff due to limitations of technical expertise or resources, the below fee-schedule will be applied.
ROAD DEVELOPMENT INSPECTION FEES
County Maintained Roads – Road Inspection costs are paid to a third-party engineering firm. The fees below reflect the actual costs.

BE IT FURTHER ORDERED that the Crook County Court adopts as part of the county fee schedule those fees authorized to be collected by local governments by Oregon Revised Statutes and Oregon Administrative Rules, and other applicable laws.

BE IT FURTHER ORDERED, that County department heads may impose additional fees related to generating custom information and records searches requested by the general public not covered herein in an amount sufficient to recover the actual costs incurred in obtaining and preparing such information, including all wage and benefit costs related to production and supervision, transportation costs, duplications costs and any other costs which such search may require. In the event that a department head shall plan to charge such a fee, the department head shall give notice in advance, along with an estimated cost, and shall require payment in advance. In the event that final cost exceeds the estimated cost, the department head involved shall notify the requesting party that additional cost will be incurred and shall not deliver a final work product until full payment has been made. In the event that payment by the requesting party exceeds payment, refunds shall be made only after the requesting party has submitted a claims sheet to the county finance department through normal processes of reimbursement.

BE IT FURTHER ORDERED that except as indicated above fees shall be charged in accordance with the above schedule unless waiver is authorized by the Crook County Court.

BE IT FURTHER ORDERED that these fees shall continue in effect until modified, amended, removed, or otherwise adjusted by the Crook County Court.

BE IT FURTHER ORDERED that no new fee shall be charged during the fiscal year unless first authorized by the County Court or established by regulation, rule, statute or law of the State of Oregon.

DATED this 19th day of December 2018.
