

BE IT REMEMBERED THAT the Crook County Court met in a regularly scheduled Work Session on Sept 1, 2020, at 9:00 a.m. in the County meeting room located at 320 NE Court Street, Prineville, Oregon 97754. In attendance were: Judge Seth Crawford; Commissioner Brian Barney; Assistant Counsel John Eisler; County Court Secretary Jennifer Orozco; Troy Poncin; Debra Patterson. Attending by phone were: John Gautney, Tim Deboodt, Muriel Delavergne-Brown, Wade Whiting, Jon Soliz, Regina Day Paul, Janet Pritiskutch, Levi Roberts

Judge Crawford opened into the public portion of the Work Session

Muriel DeLaVergne-Brown, Health Department Director gave an update. 55 cases are self monitoring. Cases have slowed down, but still need to go down more for school to be allowed for the older grades. The CARES act expires in December. Any unused funds will not longer be available. There is discussion at the state level about extending the expiration date of the funds. CARES funds in Crook County are primarily being used for staffing COVID 19 related positions.

Tim Deboodt's item is to be added to the Special meeting on Sept 3, after the bid awards are announced.

Discussion of the 2020 census as not being close enough to completion, and what can be done to relay the importance of the census to the community. The County website will have a link in the home page to help with awareness for the census.

At 9:40am Judge Crawford closed the open portion of the meeting, and opened the Executive Session ORS192.660(2)(h) Consulting with Counsel concerning the legal rights and duties of a public body with regard to current litigation, or litigation likely to be filed.

Judge Crawford read out of Executive session, and the meeting was adjourned at 10:35am.

Respectfully submitted,

Jennifer Orozco, County Court Secretary.
