To whom it may concern,

This proposal for Crossing Trails just irks the crap out of me. We moved over here from the valley seven years ago in order to escape the caos and to live in a serene enviroment. Putting in yet another resort is simply stupid. The existing Crook County infrastructure isnt even able to accomodate the current traffic situation little lone add another layer with additional housing and out of town people. We moved here to be surrounded by farm land, not resorts. This proposal will simply ruin the serenity of Powell Butte.

And if I was a betting person, I'd bet that you are deferring property taxes to this orgaization at the expense of all us current landowners who pay their property taxes. How pitiful. La Pine and Tumalo areas are starting to be appealing.
